

Empowering Minority Business! PRM Consulting Group Wins 2019 Top MBE of the Year Award

2019

WASHINGTON (September 9, 2019)—The Capital Region Minority Supplier Development Council, a global leader in advancing business opportunities for minority businesses, announced that PRM Consulting Group is the 2019 Top MBE Award winner. Celebrating the twelfth year, the Award honors MBEs in Maryland, Virginia and the District of Columbia “who demonstrate exceptional entrepreneurial accomplishments, a high level of professionalism, and has made substantial contributions to their community.” The award will be presented October 3, 2019 at the Leaders & Legends Awards Ceremony at MGM National Harbor.

“Our collaborative approach to client work is the success that provides the catalyst and powers our success. PRM is a formidable competitor in the small to mid-size organizations requiring human resource consulting services,” said Jim Moss, PRM’s Managing Director and former Practice Leader for Towers Perrin, Foster & Crosby. “With over 1,000 clients, PRM is expanding its footprint and our momentum is stronger than ever.”

Michael Rhim, a PRM Principal noted, “At PRM we are convinced that the best tool during these critical times is value-added human resource experts with big firm expertise, yet affordable and competitive rates without large overheads. Our human resource consulting experts are known throughout the industry and have the knowledge and experience of assisting clients with complex human capital resource expertise, be it pension, retirement and/or communications.”
